

Patches Training

Aims and Objectives:

- Introduction to skin patches
- Introduction to glyceryl trinitrates
- How does it work?
- How to use the patches
- Special precautions
- Side effects
- How to apply the patch
- Demonstrate safe practice regarding handling of glyceryl trinitrate patches
- Storage
- Disposal

Course Duration: 2 hours

Assessment Criteria: Informal Assessment, reflective quiz

This short course is for health and social care professionals, organisations, managers and workers, and all people who work with older people, especially in community and nursing settings.

As a participant in this course, you focus on patches, their nature and role and their possible adverse effects they may have for people.

Completing this course, you gain certificate of attendance for continuing professional development purposes.